

I am the light of the world because the light of the world dwells in me. I will bear Gods light to change the world. I will become increasingly aware of the light that I carry. I will grow in God and grow in his light. God's kingdom will come and his will will be done in me as it is in heaven. No one will meet me and not be changed because Gods spirit is in me. I will believe the unbelievable, what I am not yet I will become. I will come to understand who I am in God and soon I will see my future more clearly than ever before. The gifts God has given me will began to flourish as I understand Gods ways.

Nothing will prosper that will come against me because I will live a repentant life before God. I will become what God has called me to become, for I have been placed here for such a time as this. I live where I live because God placed me here. I am not here by accident. I am here by divine appointment. My neighbors prosper because of God in me. Where I work will prosper because of God in me. Those I touch will prosper because of God in me. Gods spirit will flow through me therefore it's impossible for me to pray for anyone and them not to be touched. It makes no difference if they recognize it or not, God will touch.

God will touch others more at times than other times. I will not judge my relationship with God based solely on what they feel. I relate to God because Gods spirit is in me. The blood of Jesus has covered me not because of what others say or my emotions, not because I feel saved or have ascended to anything, but because of what God has done in me.

I have been regenerated, born anew. God seed of light has entered me. My spirit is quickened because Gods breath is in me. I will become quickened to God, fine tuned to his spirit. Not doing what God is not doing and doing what God is doing. I will become a witness for God because Gods light in me proves to others that God exist. With Gods help when they see me they will see the Father. Soon they will be a clear distinction between those who don't know God and me because I know God. People will look to me and find Jesus because I will live out his love, extended his love, and show his love by my words, thoughts, actions, and deeds. I will preach the gospel with my life and be a burning light of Gods love to all I meet with his grace in Jesus name amen!
