

Father I come before you mentioning your loving kindness and praise of our Lord. According to all that the Lord has bestowed on us in his great goodness towards America, which you bestowed on us according to your mercies. Look down from heaven and see from your habitation, Holy and Glorious.

Where is your zeal, your strength, the yearning of your heart? Your mercies towards us. Doubtless, you are our Father, you oh Lord are our Father. Our redeemer from everlasting is your name. Oh Lord why have you made us stray from your ways and harden our heart from your fear.

Return for your servants sake oh that you would rend the heavens that you would come down. That the mountains might shake at your presence to make your name known to your adversaries. That the nations may tremble at your presence. Since the beginning of the world man have not heard nor perceived by the ear, nor has the eye seen any good besides you.

Who ask for the one who waits for you? You meet him with rejoice and righteousness. You are indeed right, and we have sinned and these ways we continue, and we need to be saved Father. All our righteousness is like filthy rags. There is no one who calls upon your name. Who stirs themselves up to take hold of you, for have hidden your face from us and have consumed us because of our iniquities, but now oh Lord, you are our Father.

You are the clay, and we are the potter and all we are, the work of your hands. Do not be fierce oh Lord nor remember iniquity forever. We are all your people, forgive us Father and have mercy in Jesus name!
