

Proverbs 12:26

Proverbs 13:20

Proverbs 27:17

Father in the name of Jesus I pray for my spouse, that they would be surrounded by righteous friends. Just as you gave Jonathan to David and Ruth to Naomi I pray you would gift my spouse with that same grace and a friend that would be closer than a brother.

Lord I ask you to bring a divine friendship. A person who is wise, who will sharpen my spouse with the word. Who will stick closer than brother and even share their burdens. Lord give my spouse discernment to choose carefully his friends. May he not be found in the council of the ungodly.

Remove those relationships in their life that will lead them to destruction. Thank you for gifting them with a divine friendship that will call out their integrity, hold them accountable, love them and their family and always lead them to your presence and word in Jesus name!
