

Heavenly Father, thank you for blessing me with a spouse who is open, honest and transparent. A man/women of strong Godly conviction. A man/women who is always willing to confess their sins before me.

Whether it be the thoughts in their mind, in their heart and their actions. May we both be quick to confess our sins to each other and pray for one another earnestly that we may be healed.

Lord I pray you would make it uncomfortable for us to hide secrets from each other most importantly from you. May you be the light that shines in our hearts and minds to unveil all things before you and each other in Jesus name!
