

Proverbs 5: 18-23

Father I pray that you would bless me to be a fountain, a cistern , a well spring for my husband alone. May he not go anywhere else to drink. May he always rejoice in me, the wife of his youth.

Grace me to be a lovely dear, a graceful doe in all that I do towards him. Let my bosom fill him at all times with delight. May it be where he always chooses to rest his head, Lord. May he be always intoxicated in my love and never another.

May his ways be before your eyes and may you ponder his path leading him to righteousness and godliness. Lord make my husband a man of discipline so that he may never be led astray. May his heart and love be yours alone. I pray ll of these things in Jesus name!