

Proverbs 3:13

“Happy is the man who finds wisdom and the man who gains understanding”

Father I pray that you would make me a woman of wisdom and great understanding. Happy shall my husband be. May the proceeds of my mouth and the profits of my hands be better than silver and my gain finer than gold.

May all things that he desires compare nothing to the wife he has found in me. Give me the grace that length of days is in my right hand which is my intimate relationship with you Lord and in my left, my work for the kingdom may it bring riches and honor.

Father make me a tree of life not only to my husband, but to all those around me. May they come and eat of the fruit that you produce in my life. May I bring happiness to my husband life and all those I encounter.

Give my husband sound wisdom and discretion may he never depart from it by your grace. As my husband he is my head and you are his head Lord. I ask that you would make me the grace to his neck that by your wisdom and wise counsel will turn his head always to your direction and your ways in all his doings. That we may truly be your body as you, God are our head in Jesus name!
