

Father, I come before you in my great weakness and ask for the grace of forgiveness to be given in our relationship and marriage.

Help my spouse and I to be gracious and merciful toward one another. Please help us to forgive quickly, letting go of offenses, resentment and even willful sin towards one another. Just as you have forgive us.

Give us the grace to truly forgive and forget. Make us gentle and forbearing with each other. May no impurity stay in our heart toward one another in Jesus name!
