

Lord, my spouse is your child, make them attentive to your wisdom. May they incline their ear to your understanding that they may keep discretion and that their lips may guard knowledge.

In the name of Jesus I break the curse of adultery off (mention spouses name) life. May they keep far away from the lips of an adulteress man/women, may they not follow their path to death. May they not even go near the door of their house or allow their strange speech to fill them with strength.

Lord, help my spouse not to depart from your word or hate your discipline or reproof. May they incline their ears to your instructions in Jesus name. May they follow in the the footsteps of their Heavenly Father in holiness, righteousness, peace and joy. I cover my spouse with your blood and may every generation iniquity be blotted out by your mercy. I give my spouse to you Lord they are your in Jesus name!
