

Lord I humbly come before you in all humility repenting for opening the door with my attitude and action of...(search your heart and see were any of these attitudes present)... pride, self righteousness, disrespect, judgment, jealousy, resentment, accusations, gossip, slander, faultfinding, unforgiveness, ungratefulness, rejection, impatience, lust, grief, sorrow, anxiety, fear, discontentment, critical thinking, bitterness. I ask Lord would you please clean up the carnage.

Remove the seeds that were planted and dispatch the demons to the abyss. I rebuke the demons of division and cover (name the persons) and I. Cover us with the blood of Jesus heal are hearts and restore all that was stolen and please give us grace to walk in substantial virtue so we don't give the demons room to come right back in Jesus name.

Lord turn us back and don't allow our steps to deviate from your ways (Psalm 44:18). Give us great wisdom and determination to avoid sowing seeds of discord. May (mention persons) and I in all sincerity yield to each other in submission, humility and kindness in Jesus name!
