

Hello brothers and sisters and YouTube Family. Hope you guys are being blessed. I was feverishly working on the task the Lord put before me concerning preparation for the City of God community today. I began working on the website again and found myself encountering a problem where all the pages I created had an error messages. I reached out to the support chat and they couldn't figure it out because on their end my site looked fine. I was again frustrated to say the least thinking this was another assignment of opposition from the enemy. So, I sent an email out to my intercessors to back me up in prayer and to cover our website.

After trying several minutes to trouble shoot it with the WordPress support chat to no avail my frustration was rising as I kept telling the Lord I offer this to you and please remove these seeds of frustration and impatience from my heart. I went to the bible promises to see if this was indeed an attack from the enemy or this was the Lord. Sure, enough I got readings on "Jealously" when I asked the Lord if I should work on my website which always a bad reading. He was telling me what I was doing was disordered so I then asked if I should work on something else, he gave me "Joy". I presumed he wanted me to work on reposting the City of God messages I got a "no" on that one too.

Now I was really frustrated because I was taken off something, I thought he really desired for me to do and not getting any direction as to what to do. I went before him again asking him what he would like me to do with my time and I got "Laziness" four times in a row. I thought to myself Lord I am done, what are you trying to tell me I want to work but you're telling me no too yet giving me laziness at the same time.

So, at this point I began repenting for frustration and anger as I sought the Holy Spirit in my heart as to what the Lord is trying to tell me. Then a thought came to my mind about hearing his voice for a message. Since Jesus told me to repost the messages about the mission after receiving him in the Lords supper, I didn't try to listen for a message unless I felt he wanted to speak to me. I then ask Holy Spirit is the Lord saying I am being Lazy about hearing his voice I then got "Joy".

I realized Jesus wanted to speak to me and after prayer I just began to work immediately. When he finally clarified that he just wanted to speak to me. I thought of all my frustration, irritation, anger and confusion with the readings and my website not working and I thought to myself, Lord why didn't you just tell me that.

I am a piece of work I can imagine Jesus saying I tried but you weren't listening.

So, I stopped I immediately got off with the support chat member and grabbed my computer to hear from the Lord.

I came before him saying,
Hello Lord, I am here. I dropped what I was doing to come to you and to hear from you. Sorry Lord, please take the frustration and resentment I have in my heart because of this interruption and my confusion.

Jesus What is on your heart?

Jesus began,

“I’m glad you got the hint that you were going in a different direction than I had planned for you today. A lot of interruptions, delays or interruptions in your plans are not always from the enemy, but it is me trying to get your attention my little one. You get so glued many times to what you are doing, or the task ask hand, that you can lose sight of me and just bulldoze ahead of me”

But Lord I thought that’s what you wanted me to do. To work on the ministry and the mission, City of God. I have been trying my best to get these things done and its hard since I am one person doing it all and I also have responsibilities here in the community. I’m trying Jesus, I am, but please forgive me and show me the errors of my ways.

Jesus responded,

My beloved, I am not admonishing you for doing what I asked, but you have neglected one thing

I thought for a second and said,
Coming before you daily to hear your heart?

Jesus replied,

*Yes, my little one, I need this time of conversation just as you do.
I know you presumed you would repost the messages and that would feed our flock for some time, but I still desire to speak with you and give you council*

Sorry Lord I didn’t catch that this morning. I was so anxious and feeling insecure that I was going in the wrong direction

As an aside guys much of my rhema’s where about seeking wise council before moving forward and submitting the Lords request and demands to my superiors before I move forward which I had just done the day before. So, I was confused and a little nervous if I was going off in my own way or I was in the Lords will working on the mission.

Jesus responded,

“Well beloved continue to submit to those I put above you. Speak to Mother Clare concerning the details of my request and wait on her to give you the green light in the coming days and months. That will be very important, I will continue to give her wisdom and light concerning my will for you and this community. If she gets busy and you are not able to have an audience with her wait on me and wait on her before moving forward. That pleases me much more than going on in your self- will.

My beloved little one, I did tell you that this mission will come under all types of manner of opposition. Even in the littlest things from your channel, to your site and even within your group. This month will be rocky for various reasons, but to be forewarned is to be forearmed. I want to speak to your intercessory group and those who I called to be a part of it but are still lagging behind with their response to me. You know who you are, and I am waiting my beloved one's for you to come on board. Stop thinking your prayers don't matter anyway, that they are useless and that you don't even know how to pray that well. That doesn't matter to me or this little one. When you say "Yes", I empower, equip and anoint. You are needed in this group my dear ones. Your sacrifices coupled with your prayers are so powerful and that alone sends an atomic bomb into the enemy's camp because you have made yourself to be a living sacrifice for me. Offering everything in your life for the salvation of souls. So, come on board and respond to your lovers call.

To those within your group now it is time to tighten ship. You all have taken it easy for a while now, but I must make known to you loose ends and open doors that the enemy can easily enter thru to affect the group. Your intercessors are the first line of defense that the enemy will attack. If any of them are down, then they can take you down.

My beloved ones, I am so greatly to your response to this call and indeed in the past year you have borne more fruit that you can imagine, but it is time for you all to mature as soldiers. This mission you have signed on for will reach the ends of the earth. Hence that is why you will continue to be attacked so viciously and that is why I must admonish, exhort and encourage you all to take this role, this office and this work much more seriously. I have seen your efforts and I am pleased, but to cover this ministry is to cover you and your family. To cover little mother every day is to cover yourselves as well, she is your Mother."

At this point as Jesus was speaking, I immediately began to envision spartan like soldiers like from the movie 300 and they were in a turtle formation. However, there weren't spartan soldiers but the intercessors for the ministry. They covered me with their shield so tightly and I was in the middle as they covered one another.

"I see you all as Gideons 300. A tightly knit group of misfits whom the world has rejected and have even been scorned and dishonored by the church and family members. Only I know the purity in your hearts and that even the simplest prayers out of your mouths move mountains. You are my handpicked warrior brides, and you are beautiful on the battlefield. It is time for me now to prepare you all for the battles you will face. First of laziness, distraction, curiosity and then of division.

As this little one has told you this is not just her ministry or mission, but it is yours as well and I want you to begin treating it as such. I know you all are very busy, and some even have families, but this laxy daisy attitude of heart concerning what is asked of you, requested of you or lack of response to this little one's emails will hurt the group. I hear the thoughts of your heart beloved ones and I understand if you are caught in the thick of a situation at home and are unable to respond or to do what is asked, but it's when you see it, and you put it off, disregard or tell yourself you will get to it later. You are not telling her that, but you're telling Me that my beloved ones and that grieves me.

Then there is curiosity still among the Heartdwellers flock and it's no different in this group as I have asked you all to refrain from listening to other teachers and prophets not because they are not my servants, but because I am leading you all in a very unique way. There is no need to continue to drink from polluted waters of man when you get pristine life-giving waters from me here. I want to mature you in discernment because your council will be needed and can be life or death for a soul and to this little one. How can your discernment grow? By spending more time with me and listening to my voice through these messages that you may know my ways and my heart in situations. As her intercessory group I want to keep all of you pure as possible especially as the ministry continues to grow. You have heard the saying curiosity killed the cat, well it is demons of curiosity that will lure you, ensnare you and drive many of you into vain ideas and even suspicions that can become a source of contention later within the group.

Then there are distractions among you. Some are still easily entangled in the world and with its desires and others are distracted with their own strong desires and attachments. You are in a war my beloved ones and any desires that leads you outside my will, will derail you from your destiny. Foolish distractions can cause you to be caught off guard not fully covered and injure you, which will injure the group. You guys are one another's covering as well so when one goes down it causes a gaping hole for the others to fall prey as well.

Then there is the assignment of division that will be continuous. You all have been very good to encourage one another, but the assignment coming against you guys will be very subtle first starting with differences in opinion and discernment. Then wanting to correct one another, then contending with one another and with this little one. Any sign of contention is a crack for the demons of division to enter, do not allow it. I want you all to adhere to this little one's directions and instructions. If you feel a different conviction in your conscience then talk with her directly, but do not contend amongst yourself or with her. I am refining you all and it is by your prayers for this little one and precious souls on this channel that will lead many into freedom and even the birth of other ministries that will come from this group. So, I am asking you all to take this work, this role and this ministry more seriously.

*Even now having this channel through this outlet...
I believe he is referring to YouTube* is already behind enemy lines and Satan and his demons are well aware of this mission and will do everything they can to stop it, but I won't allow it if you pray and continue to cover yourselves. I am sending this little one and those who will follow into the witches cauldron. They have nothing to fear if they continue to walk before me in purity of heart, I will defend them. However, as her intercessors you all are her covering and that of the children, they will be targets and so will this group, as you are now. You have no idea how far reaching this community and ministry will become. They will do everything to dismantle and separate you all whiles you are still young. That's why these may seem like hard words, but I come to admonish and equip you all for the battles ahead. It is time to mature, rise to the occasion and arm yourselves, one another, this little one and this ministry with prayer. I want you to make this ministry your priority not your own or another's. I have called you for this privileged role to co labor with me in this way. If you adhere to my counsel this ministry will flourish, your families will flourish and eventually the ministry I have for you will flourish as well. Remember those who are faithful with the little will be given much I am calling you all to be faithful brides, faithful supporters, faithful intercessors and faithful soldiers on the front lines covering this ministry and this little one."

That was the end of Jesus message

Well, I was stunned because that wasn't at all on my heart and I thought the intercessory group was going well. We have become a small little family and I am so grateful the Lord has really bonded us this past year. We have some wonderful souls the Lord has called, and they truly give of themselves freely and work even without pay. However, the Lords mercy continues to amaze me because he always knows the issues of our hearts and is so faithful to forewarn us when He sees weakness within us that can cause a breach that I was unaware of because I have been engrossed in my own agenda. Jesus is a wonderful spouse, overseer, and true covering not only for this group but this ministry

I see now the rhema I got this morning applied to this message. Initially when I got this rhema I thought the Lord was wanting me to speak to Mother Clare about details, but I see the Lord wanted to give me direct council and the rhema card reads

"Plans made with advice succeed: with wise direction wage war Proverbs 20:18

Thank you Lord for your profound insight and wisdom to fight this battle!

Please heartdwellers family I pray that you would respond to the Lords call for those he is calling to become part of our intercessor family and please pray intercessor group now as well.
