

Hello Brothers and Sisters Youtube Family Hope You Guys Are Being Blessed

For the past couple of days I was still struggling coming before the Lord to get a word from Him. I was also struggling with being anxious and feeling overwhelmed with this mission and all the task that I had before me. So I sat before the Lord in adoration, I decided to get a reading from one of the holy books. St. Faustina Divine Mercy of My Soul Diary as I opened up to page 190 which reads;

"When I became aware of God's great plans for me I was frighten at their greatness and felt myself quite incapable of fulfilling them and I began to avoid interior conversations with Him, filling up the time with vocal prayer. I did this out of humility but soon recognized it was not true humility, but rather a greater temptation from the devil.

When on one occasion instead of interior prayer I took up a book of spiritual reading I heard these words spoken distinctively forcefully within my soul. You will prepare the world for My final coming. These words moved me deeply although I pretended not to hear them. I understood them very well and had no doubt about them. Once being tired out from this battle of love with God, making constant excuses on the grounds that I was unable to carry out this task, I wanted to leave the chapel, but some force held me back and I found myself powerless. Then I heard these words, You intend to leave the chapel, but you shall not get away from Me I am everywhere. You cannot do anything of yourself but with Me you can do all things...with a grief stricken heart, apologized for everything.

Then Jesus lifted me up from the ground and sat me beside Him and put my head on his breast so that I could better understand and feel the desires of His most sweet Heart. Then He spoke these words to me, My daughter, have fear of nothing; I am always with you. All your adversaries will harm you only to the degree that I permit them to do so. You are my dwelling place and my constant repose. For your sake I will withhold the hand which punishes, for your sake I bless the earth"

Wow guys, that word pierced my heart as it touched on everything I was feeling and doing. Man Jesus knows how to read your mail right as I came before the Lord saying,

Lord forgive me for my unbelief, doubt and fear that have seem to taken me over the past 2 days. I was wanting to hear from You but, It felt like I couldn't grab on to anything You were saying. I see now it was unbelief and just feeling overwhelmed at all I have to do and questioning if you would even talk to me and unsure what to do in the waiting with the the souls you have called to Ghana. Lord I believe please help my unbelief. I'm sorry from shying away to tuning into my heart and ears to really hear you. Forgive me Lord.

Jesus began,

"My little one you are forgiven what matters is that you are here now. Oh ye of little faith stop fearing and doubting. Did I not say I wanted to speak to you not just for the flock, but things I have prepared you for?"

As I responded, yes Lord and you have

Then Jesus said'

"So why do you continue to doubt?"

and I said, Lord I'm sorry I still think I'm struggling with unbelief.

"Yes, beloved how I speak to you comes in so many different ways. That is why I gave you the card to "follow my inspirations". Many times I may not give you direct instructions but, beloved we are one, truly we are one. Our hearts are one and I no longer want you to doubt that. So many times I will put thoughts in your mind or in your heart for you to do. So follow those inspirations and don't be so fearful of being misled that it stops you from moving forward altogether. I am living My life through you and the more you walk in faith and obedience to My known will and inspirations given the more you truly decrease and I increase fully. To have My mind, My will and My desires done in and through you."

I then said,

Thank you Lord, this feeling of distance is just killing me to be honest.

Jesus responded,

"Well I am right here beloved, right here within you. You have recourse to Me any time just speak My name when you long for Me and I will be there. Now don't fear all I have called you to do and what I am asking of you. help is on the way"

As I asked,

Lord what about these dear souls you have sent, who have answered the call. Lord I am following your direction one step at a time and don't want to move ahead of you but, I'm not sure what to do or how to prepare them. What to expect myself or when you will have us all there?

And Jesus said;

"Well you are thinking ahead of Me I see (as he was smiling). All these things will cause you to worry, being anxious and prepare a way for yourself that I haven't planned. I told you I am doing things My way"

As I responded, and I see that Lord. your way is...

"Fun" Jesus chimed in and I said, I was thinking more like scary lol. I'm just playing Lord I mean it really is a faith walk because I have no idea what is front or ahead of me than what you have said.

Jesus continued,

"So rest in that my beloved one, rest in that until I bring the next step. For those that are responding to this call I am so proud of you and so grateful for your surrender truly I am. Just your willingness to follow Me into the unknown. I am commissioning you as I did my Apostles to go into this country and to baptize all in the name of the Father, the Son and Holy spirit and in My love. It is by love, honor and respect that a soul is won over, that a community is won over and that a nation can be won over for Me. Do not fear the roars of Satan for there will be many to detour you to cause you to doubt in the waiting but, for now my beloved ones stay close to Me. This time you have off is indeed a time you can drink deep from the wells of My heart for I am very near and so is My Mother. Pray the rosary daily for she will give council and wisdom. Also many graces will flow to help you resist every temptation that will come your way to cause you to stay and abandon this mission that you said yes to.

You are the smallest flowers in my garden that give much fragrance when laid down as living sacrifice. That is what you are to be called " a sacrifice", offering your lives for Me and the salvation of souls. My dear ones, adhere to the council of this little one, the books she provides will indeed help guide you daily as to the way I am forming your soul spiritually. When you let go of every and any expectation that is when I can surprise you. I have called you to give Me a hand, come to My aid in service. In any form I come and in anyway I ask. I will begin to prepare you now in the few months you have. To practice these virtues, by submitting to those around you, serving those around you and spending substantial time with Me in prayer. Staying at my feet is the greatest thing you can do in this time and receiving Me daily. As the world gets back to business as usual I want my little ones let go of the world and stay with Me. Many graces are given to you in My presence and when you receive Me daily the more you become like Me. As My very body soul and divinity becomes united with yours. These are all things to establish My tabernacle within you as I prepare to send you out as missionaries of my love."

As I then asked the Lord,
So that was your wisdom about supplying them with holy books, having them journal daily and also doing holy communion daily?

Jesus responded,

"Yes all of those things will help and rely on My spirit to do the rest."

And I then remember a rhema card he gave me that day earlier which is now clarified as it reads "do whatever is on your heart and leave the rest to me"

That was the end of Jesus message

Thank you Lord for these words of counsel which truly give me much peace and encouragement to the souls you have hand picked. Love you Lord. So guys, it's been so wonderful to get to know the team, yes the team Jesus is putting together. We are all so weak, so frail, completely under qualified for this undertaking yet He has chosen us for that very reason because it will be His power and grace through us that we will rely on. He has sent some beautiful souls as I keep pinching myself and the sweet unity among us is amazing. We now have 3 intercessors, 4 people who have answered the call to come to Ghana.

Furthermore, Just last week we hit over $10,000 in donations for this mission. Can I say #hushjesushush lol? It's amazing when you just step out in faith and say yes. So please pray for our team, donors and those coming to the community for the grace of faith and diligence in this time of preparation. Thank you for all who have donated, prayed and given encouraging words. Love you guys dearly and thank you so much for helping Jesus make this happen.

Please if anyone of you have prayer request don't hesitate to write it in the comments or send me an email so we can be praying for you all.
